THIS MATTER came before the Court on Defendants’ motions to vacate the order of default and the judgment entered by default. The motions were filed pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(c) and 60(b). As evidenced by their respective counsel’s signatures below, Plaintiff stipulates to entry of this order granting those motions on the condition that Defendants accept service under Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(c) of the summons and complaint served on them effective as of the date of entry of this order and that they waive any defense as to service of process.

Now, therefore, it appearing to the Court that an Order of Default Re: All Defendants was entered August 28, 2018 (“Order of Default”), and a judgment against defendants Eleanor R.

Brubaker and Brewbakers, Inc. was entered October 24, 2018 (“Default Judgment”), and that the parties have stipulated to vacate the Order of Default and Default Judgment, and the Court thus finding good cause to do so, it is hereby

ORDERED that:

1. The Order of Default is vacated;
2. The Default Judgment is vacated; and
3. Defendants are deemed to be personally served with the required summons and complaint and they shall have 21 days from entry of this order to plead or otherwise defend against Plaintiff’s complaint.

DATED this _13th_ day of November, 2018.

The Honorable Marsha J. Pechman
United States Senior District Court Judge
